NORTHFIELD'S ANNUAL BASEBALL BANQUET

Tuesday Evening at 7:30 — At "The Maples"

FANS AND PLAYERS WILL HOLD OLD-FASHIONED FANNING BEE

The Annual Baseball Banquet will be held Tuesday night Sept. 4 at 7:00 at The Maples. This banquet is open to any man in town interested in Baseball or in the Town Team. A chicken supper will be served at a cost of 50c. Anyone whom the committee hasn't seen may obtain tickets by calling Henry Johnson, Lawrence Lazelle, or The Herald Office.

Considerable interest has been shown in the banquet this year and Henry Johnson, with his usual unselfish devotion to the team, has dug up a great quantity of data about the teams in other days. We are glad to be able to print this interesting material.

Baseball in Northfield was first taken seriously at about 1900. The first team we have any records of were known as the Northfield Tigers in the year 1902.

Fred Atwood pitched for this team with Charles Webster behind the plate. Many other well known names appeared in the line-up.

Games were played on the Auclair lot on Warwick Ave., on the Oliver Matteson lot, south of the Tanski place on Beers Plain Road also on the Randolph lot on South Main St.

According to C. C. Stearns who played shortstop on this team it was a formidable outfit. The line-up was:

Fred Atwood, P.
Ben Callender, 1B
Charles Pearson, 2B
Charles C. Stearns, S.S.
Wm. E. Webster, 3B
Wm. Curtis, L.F.
Wm. S. Wright, R.F.
Charles Webster, C.
W. R. Moody, C.F.
Frank Green, L.F.
Albert Preston, C.F.

In 1905 we come across another strong team managed by Frank Britton. It was at this time that the present long list of managers began to appear. In the 1905 line-up we notice several new names and the absence of many of the 1902. Time was slowing up the old legs and youth once again was being served. Paul Moody takes his brother Will's place on this team. The members so far as we could find out were:

Frank Britton
Frank Evans
Charles Gilbert
Ernest Nash
W. W. Slate
Ed. Keefe
George Mason
Robert Keefe
J. Coughlin
R. E. Shearer
Charles Streeter
Frank Kendrick
Sam Smith
Paul Moody
Arthur Philips
Jim Quinlan
Bert Preston
Jim Campbell
Gray

The 1906 team left a picture behind them which will be exhibited at the banquet. Brattleboro and Chesterfield were the leading rivals in those days. John Callahan was the manager and the baseball field was the Quinlan lot in the Great Meadow. Members of that team included:

John Callahan, Mgr.
Albert Hicks
Bert Preston
Ted Olderman
Bob Leavens
Jim Quinlan
John Grace
Robert Keefe
Edw. Keefe
Bolton

The season of 1907-1908 was under the direction of Arthur Phillips, well known to Northfield people for his music. It is hoped to have Mr. Phillips at the dinner. This team lost but one game and according to Robert Wood, who is visiting in town now and was a member of this team, the umpire was responsible for that loss. The team played at Marquand Hall in East Northfield. They won 11 and lost 1. Jim Quinlan was the star with the bat and some of the long hits he poled out haven't been recovered yet. The roster that year included:

Arthur Phillips, Mgr.
Jim Quinlan
Frank Crotlan
Albert Cummings
Cecil Cummings
Frank Ropes
Bert Preston
Sam Smith
Robert Wood
Lee Howard
Arthur Keefe
Robert Keefe
George Mason

Baseball seemed to decline from this period until about 1920 when we find the present Association taking over the reins. Clarence Buffum was the first President, C. C. Stearns was the first Secretary and Treasurer. Tom Parker was manager and "Big John" Tognari was the star pitcher. "Big John" is still pitching for Turners Falls.

In '24 the team played 15 games, won 12, and tied 3. The outstanding game this year was the Old Home Day Game when ips, R. E. Shearer, Tom Parker, Raymond Clapp, Philip Porter, Harlan Atwood, Wm. Dalton, Dean Williams, Clayton Glazier, Paul Urgelewicz.

(Presidents)

Clarence Buffum, Philip Porter, H. A. Johnson, L. H. Lazelle.

(Secretary-Treasurer)

C. C. Stearns, Clarence Buffum, Frank Williams, Arthur Lawrence, Gordon Buffum, Clarence Buffum.

A ball team is very often made or broken by the attitude of the fans or the fellows who pay the check and hold down the bleachers.

Northfield has been fortunate in its loyalty to the boys who were doing their best on the field. It seems fitting to recall some of the "old-timers" who are still out there giving their moral and financial support at all times. A few who come to mind are: Rollin Shearer, Frank Montague, Steve Whitmore, H. E. Sheldon, Dr. Arthur Brown, Fred Atwood, Frank Williams, Arnold Holton, George Piper, Clarence Buffum, Marvin Vorce, Ed. Morgan, Harry Holton, John Callahan and many others.

The Banquet Tuesday night will bring the active season of 1934 to a close. Lawrence Lazelle, President of the Association will open the festivities at The Maples at 7:00 P.M. and will act as Master of Ceremonies.

It is expected that Arthur Phillips former player and well known musician of New York City will attend and speak. The prin-

West Swanzey was defeated 3 to 2 in 10 innings.

The line-up this year was:

(Pitchers)

Sid Tyler
Chick LeGault
Jack Manley

John Tognari

(Catchers)

Ray Clapp
Ernest Howard

Ralph Gibson

John Broderick, 1B

Lawrence Tyler, 2B

Bob Stein, 3B

Ken Miller, S.S.

Warren Abbott, R.F.

Myron Dunnell, C.F.

Norman Long, L.F.

The team in 1925 won 18 and lost 5. The team's batting average was .373. Warren Abbot with an average of .487 was high stickler. At bat 69 times he hit safely 34 times. Sid Tyler won 11 and lost 1 game that year.

R. E. Shearer was the manager and coach. The team played all home games on the Hotel dialmond.

The 1925 line-up:

Dunnell, S. Tyler, Salisbury, K. Miller, R. Miller, Shearer, Broderick, Abbott, McNabb, L. Tyler, Alger, Anderson, Porter, Atwood, Cook. Henry Johnson was president this year.

The records for 1926-27 are not available but in 1928 Northfield had another smart ball team. This team won 15 and lost 4 and tied 3. Bistrek was the pitching ace with 9 wins and 2 defeats. The team had 6 pitchers including Tognari who was still going strong. Phil Porter was President and Harlan Atwood, Manager. The complete roster included Amsden, Bistrek, Broderick, Buffum, Cook, George D. Miller, K. Miller, Parick, Polhemus, Putnam, E. Reed, Tyler, Salisbury, Urgelewicz, Williams, Tognari, Klaiber, Raymons.

The records now jump to 1932 when 27 games were played and 15 won. Bob Shearer won 9 and lost 1. Clayton Glazier and Dean Williams shared the batting honors. Dean also was manager.

The roster for '32 was Kerasavage, Bistrek, Glazier, Amsden, Shearer, Browning, Plotzky, Bolton and Urgelewicz.

In 1933 17 games were won and 15 lost. Dean Williams led with the stick and managed the club. Bob Shearer won 8, lost 2 and batted for .345. Red Yez played 10 games and batted .447. Fred and Fran Riel helped out in this season.

With exception of the two Rials and Yez the line-up is same as in 1932.

The 1934 season is still not complete but the team has played good ball after getting off to a mediocre start. Dick Sherwin came into prominence this year by his ability and willingness to play anywhere he was needed. A catcher when he first joined the team he has pitched a couple of games, the last one being on Wednesday night when he allowed Dick Farley to rest after Farley had held Warwick for 2 runs. Sherwin threw 22 balls for 6 consecutive strike-outs.

Since the formation of the present Association it has had 4 presidents and 5 secretary and treasurers. The team has played under 13 managers. Harlan Atwood holds the record of service with 8 years behind the reins. Bill Dalton who played ball for about 4 years and then went behind the plate as umpire has earned himself a reputation for calling them as he sees them and has been in demand in a dozen towns in the vicinity. Phil Porter, too has served as umpire on many occasions. The following are the officers since the beginning of the present Association.

(Managers)

Charles Webster, Frank Bettigan, John Callahan, Arthur Phil-

FORWARD SEEKS SENATE SEAT

Winfred F. Forward of Granby at present Representative from the 3rd Hampshire District and Candidate for the office of State Senator visited Northfield this week in the interests of his candidacy. In speaking of his reason for entering the contest for State Senator, Mr. Forward said that much pressure was brought to bear on him by his friends who thought that his section (Hampshire County) was entitled to the seat inasmuch as they have held it but 2 years since 1920. He is the only Republican Representative in Hampshire County and was elected first in 1930.

Mr. Forward is a dairymen and well acquainted with the farmer's problems in this state.

After his first term in the House he was appointed by the speaker to a special recess committee to study the dairy situation in Massachusetts. Out of this study resulted the Milk Control Bill as it stands now.

He has also been a champion of Chapter 81 Road Work.

Mr. Forward says he is not in favor of the continuance of large appropriations with their resultant high taxes but is strictly in favor of a Pay As You Go policy in the State Government.

Having served as selectman in Granby, Associate County Commissioner and Representative, Mr. Forward is acquainted with the routine of the State's Business. He has been active in the Grange and in other organizations.

He is 50 years old and married. Born in Granby he has always lived there.

THE LEGION WINS

Haven H. Spencer Post 179 American Legion won first prize at the Brattleboro State Legion Convention on Saturday with their Sea Scout float.

The float representing a seagoing craft was 40 feet long and well constructed. It represented many hours of labor by the men of the post under the able leadership of Earl Makepeace, Northfield's Handy Man, and a boat builder par excellence.

On board were the members of the Sea Scout Troop, led by Skipper Lewis Wood. The Scouts are sponsored by the Legion Post and made fine appearance in their natty uniforms.

The boat was mounted on a Ford V-8 truck loaned to the Post by Spencer Bros. local Ford dealers.

The float of winning the first prize was much applauded by Legion Posts in Massachusetts for Northfield is one of the smallest Posts in the State, as well as one of the liveliest.

GOLF MATCH BY LEADING PROS

At The Northfield Course Today

A large crowd is expected at The Northfield golf course today, when an 18-hole exhibition golf match will be played by four of New England's leading Pros.

"Mac" Sennett (Pro at Greenfield Country Club,) winner of several tournaments in Florida last winter, and every inch a champion golfer, will pair up with "Teddy" Sigda, former caddie master of Greenfield Country Club, who learned his game under "Mac's" able coaching. "Teddy" scored a 71 at Greenfield last Monday, which is a grand recommendation as to his golfing ability.

Their opponents will be none other than "Gentleman Gene" Mosher (Pro at Toy Town Tavern) Beau-Bruell of golfers, and one of the best trick-shot artists in the state; teamed up with Northfield's own "Al" Raymond, who just recently came in with a 69 on his home course, and promises to even better that, in the Pro match to-day.

The match is scheduled to begin at 2:30 P.M. and the management of The Northfield invites everybody to attend and enjoy this extraordinary feature.

LINCOLN AT CHATEAU

Many local people are planning to attend Dr. Lincoln Caswell's impersonation of Lincoln at the Chateau on Saturday evening at 8:15.

DR. HOLTON AWAY

Dr. Richard G. Holton will be out of his office all next week. With Miss Marion Holton he will attend the Air Races at Cleveland, Ohio.

Garden Club Notes

The Flower Show is over. Labor Day is almost here, and vacation time has come and gone. The summer folk are hurrying back to the towns and cities, and next week the children will be back in school again. But Mother Nature is just starting her vacation. She has had months of strenuous activity, now she is getting ready to rest. The leaves of the trees are beginning to turn, the goldenrod and wild aster flaunt their beauties from every field and thicket. The birds are gathering in flocks for their long trek south, and the air has a tang that comes only at harvest-time.

Through-out the long Spring and Summer, Dame Nature has taken us through a life-time of changes. But the shy, coquettish, maiden of April, and the well-bred matron of July, are no more. Her children are grown up, her maternal cares are over for the season, and the dear lady is already arraying herself for a final celebration before she takes her winter nap. Not for her a gradual lingering death. In one last joyous burst of flaming beauty, she says not goodbye, but good-night. She recklessly flings all her reserves to the four winds of Heaven and the world glows like a living jewel in the warmth and richness of her embrace.

She who has lived through seasons of years, knows no fear of age or death. For her, age is but the greatness of realization, a time of dreams come true, and death, but the sleep between this year and the next, the period of rest that nurtures a new life. She goes to sleep content in the sure knowledge of awakening, and her dreams are sweet with growing life.

She sets us an example, does this wise and splendid lady. She shows us what maturity should be like. Always she holds before our eyes the vision of the "ripening time," when the pain, the wisdom and the beauty of the lengthening years combine in one rich pageant of glory; when life reaches its zenith, a perfect fruit and flower, and harvest-time is near; when eyes, no longer afraid, can look beyond the horizon and see not death, but God-given sleep, not oblivion, but life eternal.

We wish to apologize to Mrs. Porter for a mis-statement in the article of last week. The Begonias shown at the Flower Show were of her own growing, not a collection from friends in various parts of the town, as stated.

The next meeting of the Garden Club will be at Mt. Hermon, time and date to be announced later.

Several helpful suggestions have been received since the Flower Show, that should help to make our next Show an improvement over this one. If any of the members noticed or over-heard anything, that they think might be of value, please write it down, and hand it in to the secretary at the next meeting. Quite often the casual remarks of non-interested people are real eye-openers.

Because this Show was a success, we must not make the mistake of setting down and becoming stagnant. Let us profit next year, by the mistakes of this.

BLANCHE CORSER.

EDITORIAL

RECOVERY ENEMY NO. 1

The Louisville Courier Journal recently published a cartoon showing a frightened figure of a man, labeled "Taxpayer," walking along a dark street. Lurking in doorways, preparing to spring upon him, were a number of hold-up artists, named "Bureaucracy," "Waste," "Spoilsman," and "Political Expediency."

That cartoon is not at all far-fetched. So far as the average citizen is concerned, predatory taxation and officialism is Recovery Enemy Number 1—no highwaymen ever lived who could equal their degradations. They take money that would otherwise be invested—and thus stifle purchasing power. They take money that would be spent for a thousand and one necessities and luxuries—and that keep our commerce and trade in the doldrums.

To day a government—federal, state and local—takes about 30 per cent of the national income, and some authorities place the percentage much higher than that. In other words, at least 30 cents out of every dollar you earn is not yours to spend. A great percentage of it goes to feed predatory tax eaters and officialism, either directly, through income, property, license and similar taxes, or indirectly, through hidden taxes on the things you wear and eat and use. It is lost to productive enterprise—to the businesses which provide jobs and opportunities for employment and investment, and which, if allowed to develop normally, would create new sources for taxation.

If the present trend continues, it won't be long until that 30 per cent becomes 40, 50 or 60 per cent. And when that time comes, we will all gradually become wards of government—private industry will have been literally starved to death, confiscated by taxation, and the tax-fed bureaucrats will reign supreme.

We see by the papers that the Big Bad Wolf never intended to leave the N.R.A. League. He was just a fall guy.

Our idea of a job that would keep your mind off the winter's coal bill would be the task of establishing Harmony in the Democratic ranks after Messrs. Curley and Cole get through paying each other their compliments.

Can some bright boy in the class give us the name of the fellow running for the Lt. Governor's nomination on the Democratic ticket?

HISTORICAL SOCIETY OUTING

The Northfield Historical Society plans an outing for Labor Day afternoon, Monday, September 3, to visit the newly located granaries on Mr. Philip Mann's land, and the Indian Council dunes, and Salmon Falls, in fulfillment of the recent plans which were postponed by heavy rain. The motorcade will start from the Belcher Fountain at 2:30. Members will bring a basket lunch.

CONVENTION WILL BE VERY REMARKABLE ONE

Northfield Session of National Grange To Be Unusual In Many Ways

Not only will the coming session of the National Grange at Hartford be the largest convention ever held in New England and initiate the greatest fraternal class in all American history, but it will be further noteworthy because of its representative character. Thirty-four states will answer the roll call, including the two new states of Tennessee and Arkansas, which has not heretofore been represented. These 34 states will include the three which border on the Pacific Ocean, all the Atlantic Coast states as far south as South Carolina, and an unbroken line from the Dominion of Canada on the north to Oklahoma, Tennessee and South Carolina on the south. They will come to Hartford by every known means of transportation, a few making the trip by water through the Panama Canal, and some by air.

At least three intending Hartford visitors have announced themselves who are more than 80 years of age, while there will be hundreds of young people there under 20 years old and some but 14 and 15, as 14 years is the age limit for Grange membership. The attendants will be chiefly from the farms of the nation, but all the professions will be represented, likewise nearly every occupation, particularly those of the country towns and villages. In all these respects a convention like the coming Grange gathering was never before assembled in America, while its expected attendance of fully 80,000 means a group of tremendous influence.

Among the many prominent national leaders who are expected to address the Hartford convention will be Secretary Henry A. Wallace of the United States Department of Agriculture and Albert S. Glass, Federal Land Bank Commissioner of the United States. Congressmen, United States Senators and others prominent in public affairs will also be in attendance and some of them will be included in the expected class of 15,000 to receive the highest degree of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry.

The city of Hartford is showing its interest in the coming convention by selecting very strong committees of arrangements, which are headed by Governor Wilbur L. Cross, the mayor of the city, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and others active in the municipal life. The big manufacturing and insurance enterprises of Hartford are planning special displays in honor of the Grange visitors and Connecticut's capital city will be elaborately decorated to receive their guests.

Another important item of Hartford hospitality, which has already been provided for, is the setting apart of parking space for 6,000 automobiles within convenient access to the several assembly places of the great Grange convention.

Although camp meeting closed Sunday with Rev. William C. Whitney of Springfield as the speaker and message bearer for the day, arrangements have been made to hold services in the Temple next Sunday afternoon and evening. Rev. John Merton Meehan of Springfield, an ordained Advent minister, who has been converted to Spiritualism and is now a prominent advocate of the spiritualist doctrine will be the speaker and his discourses will be followed by psychic messages by Mrs. Georgiana Hillman, one of the best known psychics in New England.

During the August convocation the services have all been well attended and the efforts of the various speakers and psychics have been well received. The Saturday evening dances with the Ambassadors to furnish the music have drawn good attendance of both dancers and spectators as the music has been excellent. Another dance will be held Saturday night and if the attendance warrants the dances may be continued through next month.

Monday evening the Ladies Improvement society held a whist at the Inn from which a goodly sum was realized and next Monday the Neighborhood Club will hold another, the proceeds from both parties to be used in putting Jacob's Well in thorough repair for the use of the general public.

At the annual meeting of the Improvement society the following officers were elected: Mrs. Josephine M. Simon president and Mrs. Isadore Hamilton secretary, both of Hartford, Conn. Vice Presidents Mrs. Ella B. Egan, Worcester, Mrs. Alice K. Blodgett Toledo, O., Mrs. Annie E. Johnson, Boston. Treasurer Mrs. A. Louise Feyl, Troy, N. Y.

Quite a little property has changed hands during the season. Anton W. Johnson of Boston has purchased Pinehurst on Massasoit St. from Miss Anna Birby, who has also sold the Lodge to George Hilton of Northbridge and the Bungalow to Dr. Anne M. Fielding of Greenfield. Frank A. Wilder has sold Wilder cottage to Mrs. Clara H. Collamore of Brooklyn, N. Y. and Mrs. Ruth Clark has sold her cottage on Turner St. to Mrs. Daisy Messier of Boston.

YOUR LIFE MESSAGE

A day...and a day...and day, A week, and a month, and a year... A lifetime...and what does it say, This message you're bearing, my dear?

In your courage and hope, Of patience, and kindness, and cheer? Of help up a steep, rugged slope? —Or fretfulness, temper, a sneer?

To the Lord God a year is a day; A thousand years, one in His sight; Our span is short: trust Him, and say, "Thy will, O Lord." All will be right!

—A. L. Webb

INTERESTING DAYS

For nearly a month, from Sept. 13 to Oct. 12, 1847, Col. Childs of the American troops and a handful of men was besieged in Pueblo New Mex., by attacking Mexicans, who finally retreated. The next day the American army further south entered the City of Mexico.

An eminent Italian composer of operas, masses, and other sacred music, symphonies, and quartets for stringed instruments who was born Sept. 14, 1760, at Florence, was Luigi Carlo Zenobio Salvatore Maria Cherubini.

In the old Roman calendar the "Ides" were the 15th day of each month. On Sept. 15, 1857, Brigham Young issued an order forbidding any armed force to enter Salt Lake City, headquarters of the Mormon faith in America, on any pretense whatever, and called on Mormon troops to hold themselves ready, declaring martial law. This was 5 years after the reorganization of the church, rejecting polygamy.

Ten years before that, on Sept. 16, at Fairfield, Vt., was born David Sturges Fairchild, who grew to be a noted surgeon and editor of medical publications, with his home in Baddeck, Nova Scotia.

Sept. 17 is the Jewish New Years Day. On this day in 1796 President Washington made his farewell address to the people of the nation.

An expedition sailed from Boston, Mass., on Sept. 18, 1710, to capture Port Royal, Nova Scotia.

Bulgaria mobilized for participation in the World War Sept. 19, 1915.

MEXICAN MEAT VALUES

An amusing evaluation of different meats is given by Senor Don Juan Obregon in "The Journey of the Flame," a recent Literary Guild selection.

"That of the cow," he says, "is 'tough, stringy, and producing nerves in those who eat it. What fighting man eats cow meat without protest?' Calf beef is delicious, but lacks strength." He tells of hearing a soldier shout to the cook, "Bring me an arroba (26 lbs.) of dried bull's beef. Must I lose my strength and rot my teeth eating this calf's jelly? Beef must have horns before it is fit food for fighting men."

"Had I a boy to bring up," Don Obregon continues, "I would kill a seven-year bull weekly, and if the child, from six months old, ate aught else but bull's flesh, I would dress him in skirts and set him to growing greens in a garden."

"The lion and skunk are not savory, but with care in cleansing can be eaten when one would otherwise starve. A rattlesnake is strong food and needs a steady stomach. Mule meat and horse meat are not bad, and the donkey excellent, were it not that Christ's cross upon its shoulders forbids it as food to all Christians, except in extremity. Bear's meat is not to be despised, though antelope is too dry for pleasure in eating. Of all wild game the best is a 6 months old mountain sheep ram broiled on oak coals, and with quail's fat melted over it. We ate chiefly meat, fresh when it was to be had, or otherwise dried bull's beef, which tests the teeth but fills the belly. Fruits when we were in the vicinity, or sugar cane peeled and chewed. When all else failed, the cook gave us dry, hard, white cheese to be eaten with lumps of panocha (small round cakes of hard brown sugar formed in moulds, and packed in stick crates of about 200 lbs.) of which we carried many crates in our mule cargo. Most of us preferred to roast our meat on a stick till the fat dripped."

CORN TAMALES

From Anna Ollason of Corralitos, Calif., I have this tamale recipe for you: Butter a pudding dish and pour in 1 can corn, 2 tablespoons butter, a small dot of cornmeal, a small onion chopped fine, salt and pepper to taste. Bake slowly for 45 minutes.

RICH CREAM GLACE

For a particularly fancy dessert, I am giving you the recipe for a Cream Glace called "Bonne Mama" by its originator, Emile Bally, chef at the famous New York Hotel, St. Regis. Whip 3-4 pint double cream very firm and add 4 oz. powdered sugar and flavor with vanilla. Crumble 4 macaroons and soak in kirsch and maraschino. Glace 4 chestnuts, and mix all well. Fill a pint ice cream bomb mould with the mixture, pack in crushed ice and salt and freeze 1 1/2 hours. Dip in warm water to remove ice cream to a dish with a napkin, and decorate with maraschino cherries and the rest of the whipped cream.

CHOCOLATE CARAMELS

A Canada caramel rule takes 2 lbs. brown sugar, 1-1/2 lb. chocolate, 2 tablespoons butter, a small cup of cold water, 2 teaspoons vanilla. Break chocolate in bits and put it with the water and sugar to boil till it will harden in water. Stir in the butter and flavoring and turn into buttered tins. Mark into squares before it is hard. If you prefer the caramels soft and sugary, stir well before taking from the fire.

LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary met with Mrs. Fred Pallam Tuesday evening. Routine business only was transacted.

THREE TIMES AND OUT!

Warwick must be convinced by this time that the best baseball is played on this side of the mountain. Northfield A. A. won its seventh consecutive game Wednesday night when it tamed Don Davison's hooks and gave Dick Farley excellent support. Dick Sherwin took up the white man's burden in the third and didn't need any support for he struck out six consecutive would-be batters and closed the evening's entertainment.

The game went only five innings on account of darkness. Score Northfield 7, Warwick 2.

LIVE WIRE FAIR

The Franklin County Live Wire Fair is with us again on Sept. 10-11-12. The Pre-Fair ticket sale is on and all who can are asked to help swell the sale in order that the association may continue to give the county a "Live Wire Fair." There is a possibility that the High School will close for the 12th on account of the Track Meet. The other schools will probably remain open although the school officials feel that any parents who wish to take their children on that day will feel free to do so.

Lake Pleasant

Mr. and Mrs. James Clark and daughter, Flora Mae with her guest are at the Pomeroy cottage for the week.

Mrs. James MacCallum and Mrs. Frank Pomeroy have spent a week at their cottages.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobb of Middleboro, Mass., return to their home on Monday.

At the hotel Monday evening, the Improvement Society held a whist-benefit at Jacobs Well an old landmark of Lake Pleasant. Next Monday the Neighborhood Club will hold a similar party and for the same purpose.

Sunday next—the Camp Association will hold services at the Temple. This is an extra not listed on the regular August Program.

The National Spiritual Alliance will hold the annual Convention in Wheeler Hall of their Temple September sixth, seventh, eighth with services in the afternoon and evening. Sunday there will also be services at the usual hour. Favorites of years past will be the speakers and several strangers of splendid ability as speakers and message bearers will take part.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pace have closed their Union St. cottage and moved to their new home in Lewiston, Me.

H. He has been speaking every night while away during the camp great demand and he has had to refuse attending three or four

Miss Winona Scherlin is a guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Clara Pratt at her home in West Northfield this week.

Rev. and Mrs. William Durfee returned to the Vernon Home Saturday night after a 3 weeks vacation attending camp meetings at Palmer Mass. and Greene, R. I. They also visited in Providence, R. I., where they used to live formerly.

Last Sunday the pastor's adult for their class teacher and they all greatly enjoyed it.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Holton, and Mr.
and Mrs. Lucius Holton, Jr., of not be Ashamed of the Gospel of Christ", at the South Vernon

Gertrude Gibson in the morning.

entertaining friends from Massachusetts.

Alonzo W. Wheeler, and Miss
Marcia Beers attended the American Legion Convention held at Brattleboro last week. In a parade of 1300 Saturday Mr. Wheeler was the only Grand Army man in the procession. There were a few others of the Grand Army men left but were unable to attend. Not many of the Grand Army men are living now, nearly all having passed away.

The thermometer stands at 61
degrees above zero at 12:20
D.S.T. on Wednesday, August 29 reminding one that cold weather is just around the corner ready to appear soon, with its icy dart which is not a comfortable feeling for those whose gardens and field crops are not ready to harvest. It would be a great calamity to many should a freeze come now.

THE NORTHFIELD HERALD

"My Wife is a Wonderful cook!"

"I'm proud of my wife's cooking—she serves a variety of dinners that are a continual surprise to me.

"Her food, too, has a satisfying flavor particularly its own.

"She says it's due to our new electric range with its heavy insulation which keeps the heat in the oven, sealing in all the natural juices of the meats and vegetables.

"I've noticed that the automatic time and temperature controls save her a lot of testing, peeking, and fussing—in fact, we often go out for a spin and let dinner cook itself.

"It is generally assumed that husbands don't notice these details of a housewife's duties—they're only supposed to pay the bills.

"Speaking of bills, I notice that it costs no more for electric cookery—in fact, with the free installation offer. I figure that the extra goodness of the food and the greater freedom my wife enjoys form a substantial bonus on my original investment."

You too, will find an electric range a good investment, particularly in time saved and greater kitchen convenience.

Your local dealer is featuring an advantageous free installation offer—why not investigate it today?
